

THE BIGGEST WW II GAME WE'VE SEEN IN YEARS

Our mega Operation Market Garden is going to steal the show. It's a 60-foot-long table covered with beautiful, hand-sculpted terrain, thousands of WW II miniatures, and even airplanes flying overhead. But the game play will be fast and fun. This will be THE gaming event of the year—if not the decade.

GIANT ANCIENTS GAME WITH 100-FIG UNITS

A massive Ancients game featuring more than 4,000 25mm figures will clash in this epic battle between Julius Caesar's legions and the barbarian hordes of Gaul. With 100-figure units, this should be a visually stunning battle—and a game that participants will remember for years.

VIKING LOOTERS

This is a Dark Age scenario in which any AD&D player will feel comfortable. The Vikings have looted the countryside, and it's time to head back to the ship. Just watch out for angry villagers and rival Norsemen raiders.

Wow! That's the only word to describe what the Historical Miniatures Gaming Society has planned for the upcoming FALL IN! gaming convention at the Maryland State Fairgrounds in Timonium, Md., Nov. 14-16.

HMGS is going "all out" to put together an impressive array of super-special games, tournaments, historical re-enactors, kid's games, displays, and a 25,000-square-foot Dealer Hall packed with hobby products—all designed to make our convention an event you won't want to miss.

SHOWCASE GAMES

To make FALL IN! irresistible to the gaming community, we enlisted some of the top talent in the hobby to put together a schedule of incredible, you-can't-miss-it events. (See a partial list in the box at left.)

HUNDREDS OF OTHER GAMES READY FOR YOU

Geez, we've got so many! Here's your chance to refight any of the great battles of history. Command scurvy pirates. Command a WW II fleet in the Pacific. Lead Napoleon's armies to victory. Or draw your six-shooter and head to the Wild West.

NATIONAL SECURITY DECISION-MAKING GAME

Every heard of this unique gaming experience? Military veterans serving as umpires are ready to put you in the White House and Kremlin, where you must decide how to respond to world events.

An intense, realistic role-playing experience where you deal with the press, special interest groups, foreign diplomats, and more as you struggle to achieve your political objectives. Your decisions will spark miniatures battles later in the day.

SCI-FI FUN WITH 'INTERACTIVE' TERRAIN

Far in the future, human mercenaries seek an ancient relic on a long-abandoned planet. We're not quite sure what "interactive" terrain means, but we think it has something to do with light effects and smoke—among other unusual aspects of this 24-foot-long futuristic battle.

DWARF WARS

Two dwarf clans are discussing the ownership of disputed territory in the most civil way they know how—by fighting over it. Featuring the new life of Dwarf Wars figures by Old Glory Inc.

Here's your chance to do a little early holiday shopping. Tens of thousands of painted and unpainted miniatures, buildings and terrain, rules, books, posters, and much more will be available in our 25,000-square-foot Dealer Hall. For one weekend, FALL IN! will boast the largest hobby store in the world.

GAMES WORKSHOP EVENTS

Thanks to our friends at Games Workshop, we'll have something new for those who enjoy a bit of fantasy and sci-fi:

- A slate of Warhammer, Warhammer 40K, and Lord of the Rings games sponsored by GW's Hobby Team.
- An invitation-only Rogue Trader Tournament, open to winners of GW tournaments held in participating hobby stores this fall. Check the GW Web site to learn more.
- LOTR Painting Contest: Bring your painted Lord of the Rings model to the Games Workshop Studio table on Nov. 15, by 1 p.m., for judging. Photos for White Dwarf magazine will be taken.
- Launch of New LOTR Game: The new installment of GW's popular LOTR game, the Return of the King Battle Strategy Game, will be on sale.
- Special Edition Figure: A special edition Dark Angels Sergeant Space Marine will be on sale. This exclusive miniature is available only at select gaming conventions.

FUN FOR THE KIDS

Our Children's Room offers youngsters an opportunity to play games with kids their own age. Also, our convention mascot, the wacky Bugler Bob, will be on hand with silly jokes and zany games.

BATTLE OF BEGINNERS CONTEST

After seeing all our incredible events, newcomers to the hobby might be a bit intimidated. To show them that it's easy to get into the hobby, we've got a contest where people are organizing nifty games with only $100 worth of figures and terrain.

Come take a look at the creative ideas of our contestants.

A HOST OF RE-ENACTORS

Never have so many historical re-enactors been invited to an HMGS convention. Winged hussars, Renaissance-era artillery, swashbuckling pirates, and the return of Queen Elizabeth and her entourage are in the works.

Introduce the kids to the pageantry of the Renaissance world, or come by yourself and inspect the exotic and deadly weaponry and uniforms of a bygone era.
